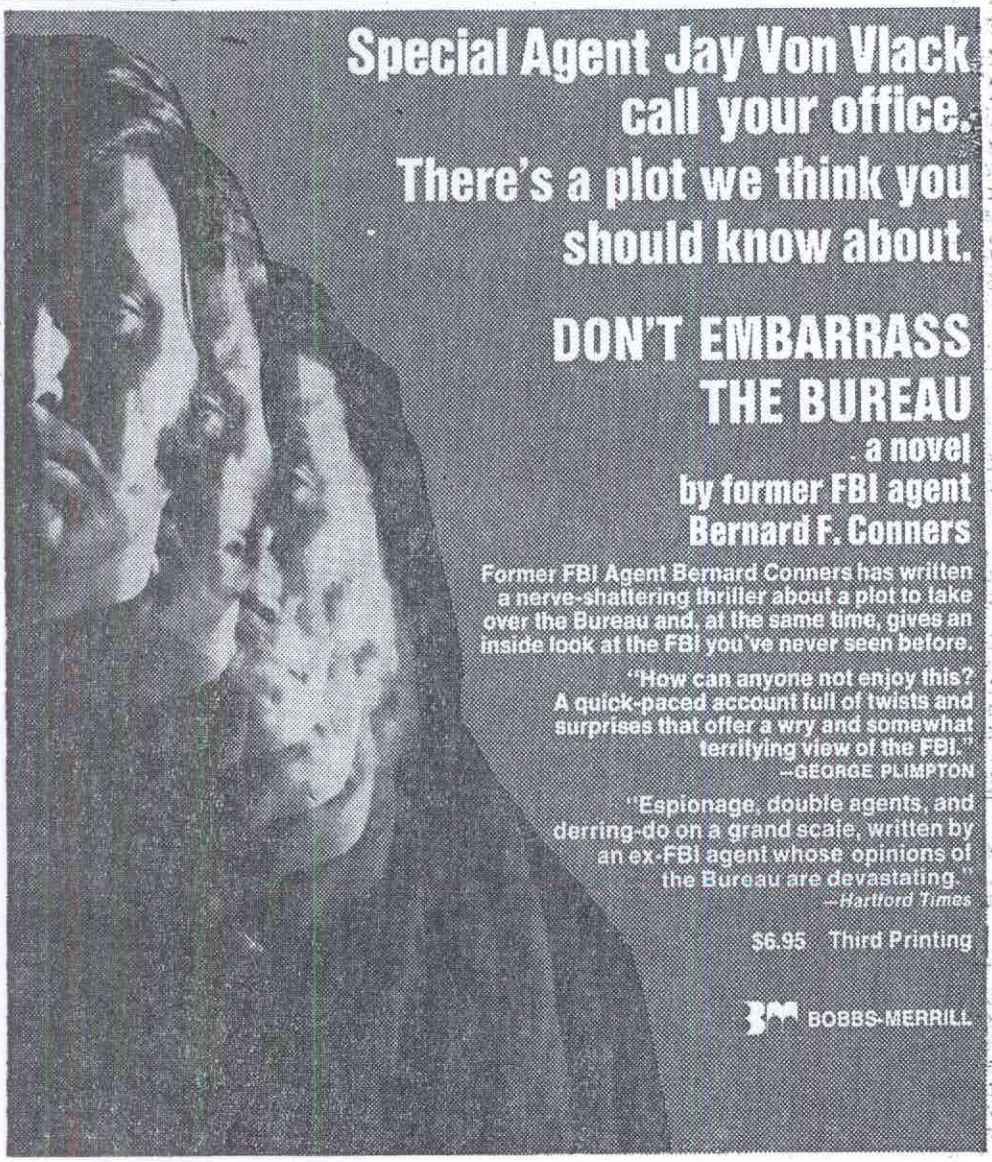
NYTimes JUN 2 1972



Special Agent Jay Von Vlack call your office. There's a plot we think you should know about.

DON'T EMBARRASS THE BUREAU

a novel
by former FBI agent
Bernard F. Conners

Former FBI Agent Bernard Conners has written a nerve-shattering thriller about a plot to take over the Bureau and, at the same time, gives an inside look at the FBI you've never seen before.

"How can anyone not enjoy this? A quick-paced account full of twists and surprises that offer a wry and somewhat terrifying view of the FBI."
—GEORGE PLIMPTON

"Espionage, double agents, and derring-do on a grand scale, written by an ex-FBI agent whose opinions of the Bureau are devastating."
—Hartford Times

$6.95 Third Printing

BOBBS-MERRILL